

Supreme Class

smartEX

"Supreme Class" Guidelines

Using a Supreme Class Cabin (Car No. 7 · for up to two guests) with multiple guests

①

Cabins are limited to a total of two guests who are classified as Adults or Children

* This two-person limit does not include guests who travel for free according to JR ticket rules (up to two Infants and any number of Babies per Adult or Child).

②

When traveling as a party of two, one guest must reserve the Supreme Class Cabin (Car No. 7), and the other guest must either make a valid reservation for the same train or have a ticket and limited-express ticket valid for the same train (ordinary car non-reserved seat, ordinary car reserved seat, or Green Car).

③

If an Infant is traveling alone, a reservation must be made for the Supreme Class Cabin (Car No. 7) under the Child classification.

[Reference] Eligible Use Cases

Case 1

1 Adult / 1 Infant

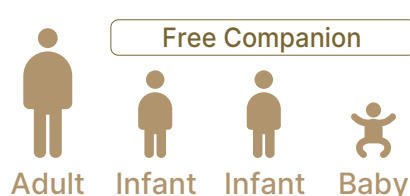

OK

The Adult must make the reservation for the Supreme Class Cabin (Car No. 7).

Case 2

1 Adult / 2 Infants / 1 Baby

OK

The Adult must make the reservation for the Supreme Class Cabin (Car No. 7).

Case 3

1 Adult / 1 Child / 3 Infants / 1 Baby

OK

One guest—either the Adult or the Child—must reserve the Supreme Class Cabin (Car No. 7), and the other guest must either make a valid reservation for the same train or have a ticket and limited-express ticket valid for the same train (ordinary car non-reserved seat, ordinary car reserved seat, or Green Car).

[Reference] Age Categories

Adult	12 years and older Elementary school children (*) are deemed to be "children" if they are 12 years old or over but less than 13 years old.
Child	6 years up to (but not including) 12 years Children aged 6 years or over but less than 7 years who have yet to enter elementary (*) are deemed to be "infants."
Infant	1 year up to (but not including) 6 years
Baby	Younger than 1 year

*"Elementary school" refers to elementary schools established under Japan's School Education Act. Furthermore, the term "elementary school student" refers to students enrolled in an elementary school established under Japan's School Education Act.